We are excited she wanted to work with us because this young lady is reaching for the stars. As a US Navy Operation Specialist Mackenzie holds the discipline to handle the hard and difficult road of the car modeling industry. Keep reading to learn more about our newest model and see her full photo shoot:

Originally from Bremen, Georgia, Mackenzie moved to Norfolk for the military. She became fascinated by the car scene with her husband. My husband actually has a 1991 Nissan Skyline GTS-T and it's a beauty, Mackenzie tells us. The pair attend events together and Mackenzie emerged herself into the car scene. When her husband had an opportunity to have his car photographed he encouraged Mackenzie to bring a few outfits and pose with his car. We are grateful for her husband's support, Mackenzie is quickly becoming a great model!

Mackenzie met popular car photographer EJ from Hampton, VA for her first ShockerRacing Shoot. She met him through JBM Motorsports Car Group, as well as the car owner, Olman Navarro from Virginia Beach. Mackenzie tells us, I love Evos and his car caught my eye. I absolutely had to shoot with it. Mackenzie posed with the car at a parking garage in Norfolk. You can see her personality in her work and does her best in front of the camera. We asked Mackenzie what her favorite part of the shoot was and she told us The excitement of finally being able to shoot in the famous ShockerRacing Gear. As well as, Nava's car for the time ever! We share the excitement here with Mackenzie and look forward to her next shoot!

MF: KandyKenz, Kenzie, Mack, Big Mack, Turtle. SR: What's your favorite food?
MF: I love crab. SR: What's your favorite Pizza topping?
MF: Cheese, cheese and more cheese! SR: Do you have any tattoos? If so, please tell us about them.
MF: Yes, I have 4! There is a hear on my right wrist that is a family tattoo that the females on my dads side all have. We got it for my Aunt Gena who passed away on her motorcycle. It means "I have your heart and you have mine." I also have the word "Ohana" on my left wrist and it's from the movie Lilo and Stitch. It's my favorite childhood movie and it means "Family and family means no one gets left behind or forgotten." Being in the military this means a lot to me because no matter how far away I am I know I will always have my family by my side. I have another tat on my stomach area that I drew when I was 13. It's a rose with a diamond around it, I put it in the middle of my body because I love art, drawing, painting, singing, dancing, and it's my core so it is in the middle of my body. The last one is a dragon piece on my right hip, this dragon resembles everything I have been through and overcame. I may be young been I have been through a lot, my dad always called me his little dragon and said it was because I was fierce, brave, and can overcome anything life throws at me.   Follow The Crew
